We welcome you to Christmas Mass at SJV!

We welcome you, God's beloved, and we wish you a very Merry and Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Whether you are a faithful parishioner, a Catholic who joins us only once in a while, a visitor, or a member of a different faith tradition, you are God's beloved. That is how God sees you, and so does our parish community. We wish you God's gift of Christmas peace.

May you who are faithful parishioners rejoice in God's many blessings and know that you have been a blessing for others.

May you who have come home from college or traveled from afar to rejoin your family for the holidays know you are always welcome at SJV, your spiritual home.

May you who are visitors find here a community of welcome and a community that rejoices in praising God.

May you who are members of the parish family, but of a different faith tradition or of no specific faith, know that we hold you in our hearts and ask for God's blessings on you.

May you who come with sadness in your heart or who have experienced great sorrow, pain, or hurt in the past, sometimes from the Church itself, experience this Christmas as a new beginning of healing, hope, and peace.

At Christmas, God sent His son to bring all of us to new life.

If you would like to explore this new life with us, we invite you to visit our website at sjvkirkland.org or call the office at (425) 823-0787.

This is our first Christmas without Margie. Strangely enough, I still talk to her from time to time, asking her questions like: What is heaven like? Are you enjoying eternal paradise thus far? Do you miss us? Do you miss the Greek food here? (That was one of her favorite foods).

When I was in the parish office, I would often stop by her desk and ask her many questions: Margie, what do you think about this? What do you think we should do? Call me weird, but I still do that from time to time.

But this time is different because I don't hear her physical voice. The questions are met with silence. But it gives me comfort knowing that she is still with us in spirit. I tell her: I miss you Margie, and I hope you're doing well, Margie!

I remember a few weeks before she passed, I asked Margie if there's anything she would like to say to the people. She said: "Tell them I love them, and tell them that I will miss them!" Sitting there by the hospital bed with her, it was not easy to see her struggle and in pain.

Also, everything else seemed so small and minuscule. Sometimes we fret and worry over the little things. We waste time holding grudges or dwelling on our differences. They just don't seem that important when you're so close to going home to God. I told her that I was collecting funds for the Mystery Bowl for the auction. She was happy that we are celebrating our Golden 50th, and so sorry that she couldn't be with us.

Seeing her in so much pain, my prayer was that God would bring her home quickly and peacefully. Looking back, it all happened so fast. It seemed like it was just yesterday that Margie was retiring and looking forward to her retirement and gardening and spending time with her grandkids. She was kind of disappointed that she couldn't do that. But she said: "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Every Christmas we are blessed to celebrate with the people who are still here with us on this beautiful earth. And it also may be a first Christmas without some of our loved ones, those who have gone before us to heaven. Although they are no longer in body, they remain with us in spirit. "I believe in the Resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come."

Wishing you a Merry Christmas! Be sure to take the time to thank God for the people who are still here. And let's help remind one another to give thanks to God for the Lord Jesus and the Holy Spirit. God bless!

And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds to Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 4:6-7) Do you or someone you know need a prayer? Call Kay Smith at 425-486-2528 and she will start the prayer chain going.

Sonshine Ministry - If you know of someone in our parish who could use a little extra love via a card or a meal, please contact the parish office. If you feel called to help in this ministry we are always looking for volunteers to help support those in need by making a meal. It is a wonderful way to support one another.

 Quilters Group - Wouldn't it be fun to spend one morning a week learning a new skill? Quilting is one of those rare activities that is fun, relaxing and engages both sides of the brain. If you would like to join this great group of quilters but are inexperienced with quilting, this group would love to help you get started. They meet each Wednesday in the social hall from 10:00-11:00am to make quilts for those in nursing homes or recovering from illness. Contact Kathy Egan, 425-864-4325.

Please contact Susan Weaver, sweaver@sjvkirkland.org, if you are interested in volunteering.

Pastoral Care of the Sick - A most rewarding ministry in our church is bringing the Eucharist to the homebound. The visits are once a week for about 15 minutes. You would receive a short training and supplies for your visits. There is no greater gift to give and it is so appreciated by those you visit. If you are interested in visiting the homebound or are homebound and would like to receive communion, please contact the parish office or Gayle Kasen: 206-595-2020.

We are currently not gathering in person because of COVID-19, but you can still join us virtually every Saturday from 12:00-1:00pm over Zoom. So you need not be alone, and you need not feel as if you've been forgotten! If you are interested, contact the parish office for details.

Knights of Columbus Membership in the Knights of Columbus is open to males 18 years of age or older who are practicing Catholics. Meetings are every third Thursday of the month at 7:00pm via Zoom. For more information contact the Grand Knight: Mike Myette, 206-510-6536.

We meet the last week of every month either Wednesday or Thursday to build community. Interested? Please join the "SVJ Moms Meetup" Facebook group for updates about our monthly meetups.

Women's Book Group The first Tuesday of each month at 7:00pm our Women's Book Group gathers with wine and chocolate to discuss a book that has been chosen by the group. You do not need to read the book to come to the book group. The January Book is Being Home: A Book of Meditations by Gunilla Norris, and the February Book is Crossing to Safety by Wallace Stegner

Liturgical Ministers Training Are you confirmed? Please consider serving your parish as an altar server, eucharistic ministers, lector, sacristan, or usher. Please contact Fr. Vu if interested.

Divorced? Considering getting an Annulment? Schedule a meeting with Father Vu and he will let you know the details. Roberta Hatfield is our amazing Advocate and will meet with you and help you through the process. If you have questions, please contact the parish office.

donating BEYOND CASH:

A charitable contribution may just be the right decision to enable you to itemize your taxes (if you don't already).

Potential tax law changes may make a gift this year even better than next year. The new IRS tax law established new, higher standard deductions - $12,550 for single filers, $25,100 for married couples, and $18,800 for heads of household. Additionally, the CARES Act helps charitable giving in 2021 by allowing donors who itemize their deductions now to give more cash to charity before reaching their adjusted gross income (AGI) limitation. Formerly set at 60%, it has now been raised to 100% of an individual's AGI. Any giving beyond this 100% limitation may be carried over and used in the next five years. For those who do not itemize their deductions; the $300 ($600 for married couples filing jointly) has been extended. Qualifying donations must be made in cash not stock, for example.

Please consider:

- Applying for any company, union, or bank matching gifts (especially to our outreach programs such as the Mission Treks or St. Vincent de Paul)
- Remembering us in your will & trusts
- Providing to us as one of the beneficiaries of your retirement fund/life insurance
- Make a memorial/remembrance gift
- Contribute from your Donor Advised Fund
- For those of you who are 72+ years old, you may wish to consider making a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from your IRA. Please contact the parish office for more details.

Disclaimer: This is for information only - Not Legal Advice

Before making any financial decisions, we strongly recommend that you consult a tax and/or financial advisor as tax laws are continually changing. As you look at being a good steward with the resources God gave you, being a good steward means doing so with wisdom and righteousness.

CHRISTMAS LITURGIES

Please note that participating in Mass on Christmas Day, even an evening Mass, does not satisfy the Sunday obligation. Come celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family with your family on Sunday, December 26th.

Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

- Sunday, December 26th at 9:00am and 11:00am

The parish office will be closed December 27-31. There will be no morning Adoration & Masses on these days.

The Epiphany of the Lord

- Sunday, January 2nd at 9:00am and 11:00am

The Baptism of the Lord

- Saturday, January 8th at 5:00pm
- Sunday, January 9th at 9:00am and 11:00am

Some changes you'll see at Mass to protect ourselves, to protect our neighbors, and to protect the ability FOR ALL to safely worship together - face masks required, no singing, and no Blood of Christ. Clearly marked sections for worship are available for people seeking physical distancing. Doors will be open to ensure proper ventilation, so we encourage you to come with coats.

HISTORY OF RACISM IN AMERICAN CHRISTIANITY

Adult Faith Formation Class

Each Thursday evening starting at 7:00pm on January 6, 2022, we will study of the history of racism in American Christianity. This is an online class using Zoom. The class will provide some context by exploring the apparent contradiction between an individual's sole responsibility for sins and the transmission of sins from generation to generation, as well as examining the evangelization of the Patristic period. It will then explore the history of racism in American Christianity starting with the colonization of the Americas and continuing to the present day. The class textbook is The Color of Compromise, by Jemar Tisby. To register, please call the parish office or sign up at the welcome table in the narthex. Please indicate whether you intend to supply your own copy of the text or whether you would like one to be ordered for you.

MYSTAGOGY IN THE PATRISTIC TRADITION

Adult Faith Formation Class

Mystagogy – or the study of Christ as He's revealed in the sacraments – was a particular concern of bishops in the Patristic period as they initiated neophytes into the mysteries of the Christian faith. This is an online class using Zoom. Each Monday evening starting at 7:00pm on January 10, 2022, we will study the work of the four major mystagogical writers of the Patristic age: St. Cyril of Jerusalem; St. John Chrysostom, Bishop of Constantinople; St. Ambrose of Milan; and Theodore of Mopsuestia. All readings are available as free downloads. To register for the class, please call the parish office at 425-823-0787 or sign up at the welcome table in the narthex.
