Hello SBA Families!

We read many great stories last month and had many fun adventures centered on those stories. We worked on story retelling and sequencing, and learned the importance of doing our share and working together with The Little Red Hen, erupted our own volcanoes and made button blankets with Frog Girl, and so much more!

This month in Storybook Adventure we will be enjoying more wonderful stories with the themes of sharing and community. The children are inquisitive and eager to explore the various stories we have shared with them. We look forward to further nurturing the curiosity, compassion, and enthusiasm of each child this holiday season. We wish you and your family a very Merry Christmas and a joyful New Year!

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Thanks!
