Welcome to Mass at St. John Vianney

Lord, you walked the path of suffering with love and patience. You were betrayed, denied, and abandoned, yet you remained faithful. Help me to follow your example. Give me strength in hard times, courage to stand by you, and a heart willing to serve others. Teach me to love as you love. Amen.

We're thrilled to have you with us as we come together to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and to seek Christ in the Word, the Eucharist, and the Assembly.

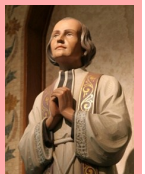

There is a church staff member available after every Mass at the Welcome Table or at Coffee & Donuts in the Social Hall on Sundays. We'd love to help you find your place of service and connection within our church family. We also invite you to visit our website at parishesofkirkland.org.

We love children and the sound of children. Please know we fully welcome your entire family to be present. If you prefer some quiet time, a nursery is available downstairs during the Sunday 9:00am and 11:00am Masses.

To receive our weekly newsletters, text "NEWS25" to 84576. If you've signed up and don't see it in your email by the end of the day on Thursdays, be sure to check your junk mail.

FR. BRAD HAGELIN

My dear Kirkland Catholics,

As our candidates and catechumens approach the Easter Sacraments, I wanted to share a brief history lesson—both ancient and more recent. The Triduum (the Mass of the Lord’s Supper, the Celebration of the Passion of the Lord on Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil at night) and the process by which adults convert to Catholicism looked very different less than seventy years ago.

Before the Second Vatican Council—and before the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (now called OCIA) became widely implemented in 1986—an adult converting to Catholicism usually received private instruction from a priest and was baptized and/or fully initiated in a relatively private ceremony. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Vigil liturgies were generally celebrated in the morning and were often sparsely attended.

This began to change in the 1950s, when the Triduum was reformed. These reforms emphasized the unity of the Paschal Mystery, the centrality of the Easter Vigil as the “Super Bowl” of liturgies, and the full participation of the faithful in these solemn celebrations. A fascinating part of this renewal was the discovery, in 1884, of the writings of Egeria in a monastery in Italy. She was a laywoman—possibly a consecrated virgin—who traveled to Jerusalem around 381-384 AD and recorded in her travel diary how Christians there celebrated Holy Week. Many of these ancient practices had been forgotten or had developed in different directions until her writings were rediscovered.

Her account describes a Palm Sunday procession in which Christians gathered on the Mount of Olives and processed into Jerusalem with palms, much as we do today. It describes an evening Eucharist on Holy Thursday, followed by a time of “watch and pray” at the Mount of Olives, similar to our prayer before the altar of repose. It includes the veneration of the Cross and a public proclamation of the Passion on Good Friday. Finally, it recounts an all-night Easter Vigil filled with Scripture readings and baptisms. In short, the Church in the mid-20th century engaged in what is called ressourcement, a “return to the sources,” in order to recover and renew these ancient practices.

Likewise, the rediscovery of early Christian texts led to a renewed understanding of how adults were formed for Baptism in the first centuries. This formation was clearly public and communal, involving sponsors, scrutinies, minor exorcisms, the dismissal of catechumens after the Liturgy of the Word, and initiation—normally—at the Easter Vigil. The reform of RCIA/OCIA was also an act of ressourcement: not an invention of something new, but a restoration of something ancient.

Older is not always better. Yet I believe these changes have greatly enriched our experience of Holy Week. I strongly encourage you to plan on attending at least Holy Thursday and Good Friday this year—you won’t regret it.

With love in Christ,

Fr. Brad

ST. JOHN VIANNEY CATHOLIC PRESCHOOL

Spring is in the air at St. John Vianney Catholic Pre-School. We are learning about the beautiful mystery of the Easter season. Our teachers are sharing stories of hope, giving, and unconditional love. The students may be only 3-5 years old, but their hearts are enormous and very joyful. Stop by downstairs and look at what is blooming on the classroom bulletin boards.

Registration is going strong. There are still openings for those interested in giving their child a faith - play based preschool experience. Please contact Anne Dahlin, SJV Preschool Director at Preschool@sjvkirkland.org for further information and to book a tour.

CHILDREN AND FAMILY LIFE

PARISH NURSERY: While we love having children at Mass with our community, if you need some focused time, our nursery is available for children 18 months through 4 years old. It is staffed Sundays during the 9:00am and 11:00am Masses. The nursery is located downstairs. Parents are welcome to stay with their children if it makes them more comfortable. Audio from Mass can be heard in the nursery.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD (CLOW): Children are invited to join us for dismissal during the Sunday 11:00am Mass. The children hear the Gospel and have an opportunity to break it open with discussion, activities, and other stories that relate to the Gospel. No registration required and parents are welcome to accompany their children if they'd like. Children's Liturgy of the Word runs all year.

FIRST RECONCILIATION & EUCHARIST PREPARATION: Registration is now closed for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist Preparation for the current school year. If you would like your child to receive the sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Eucharist for the 2026-2027 school year, your child should be enrolled in faith formation their first grade year or attend Children's Liturgy of the Word consistently this year and their second grade year. The Archdiocese requires two years of formation for Sacramental Preparation. If you have questions, email Laura, Lstanger@sjvkirkland.org.

CATHOLIC KIDS' CATECHISM CLUB: CKCC is wrapping up for the school year. What a great year it has been! We have 2 sessions remaining—April 19 and 20 will be our last regular clubhouse meeting, then on April 26 our 9:00am group will meet for their end of the year party at the regular time, and our 1st-5th Graders will have their Survivor Party from 1:00-3:00pm on the back lawn. For details, visit sjvkirkland.org/faith-formation/#ckcc.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY VOLUNTEERS: Thank you so much for to all our Catechism Club volunteers. We could not do Catechism Club without the leaders who are open hearted and free spirited!

We will need adult help at our Vacation Bible Camp as well. One day or all 4 days! Criminal background checks and online training are required in order for adults to volunteer with kids. Log onto virtus.org to make sure your background check and your trainings are up to date. If you have any questions, let Laura Stanger know.

MOM'S MORNING OUT: Wednesday mornings from 9:30am-12:00pm, primary caregivers of children ages 1-5 can drop their children off in the parish nursery for childcare while the caregiver gets a couple hours of free time to run errands, relax, clean house, whatever without a little one under foot. There is a fee of $15 per child per day, and a registration form. Parents with more than two children pay a maximum of $30 per day. There is currently a waitlist for this ministry. Sign up to get on the list today.

CKCC MICROLOAN BUSINESSES

Clubhouses received a small loan from Ms. Laura to start a small business to raise money for CRS Rice Bowl. This week, our Sunday First Graders will sell raffle tickets for a Family Raffle Basket, while our Sunday Fifth Graders sell baked and chocolate covered pretzels. Your generosity helps our kids learn how microloans support people to earn a living. May the zeal with which the kids in CKCC sell their items be a reminder to us of our call to help those in our global community who are in need of the most basic of things - food, medical care, clean water, and shelter.

Thank you for your patience with the process as we work through stopping our licensing with Ministry Scheduler Pro (MSP). This past week, you should have received an email inviting you to go into MSP and set up a new password and account. We are now creating a new database with Holy Family. The SJV ministry schedule will remain separate, but you will need to create a new account in order to remain as a minister and be scheduled. You will need to input your preferences again as the information did not transfer. Marti Bolcer will continue to administer the schedule for SJV once it is set up and working.

If you did not receive an email and believe that you are a current minister, we either have an old email address for you or your information did not transfer properly. Please email: billw@hfkparish.org and he will add you after verifying your ministry.

If you have been choosing to not use the online system (MSP), you will not be able to continue doing so. We have hundreds of ministers in the combined system and cannot manually assist people. Please go in and create your account. If you need assistance using the system, please contact avandewark@sjvkirkland.org to set up a time to help you. If there is enough interest, we will set up a training session for everyone interested.

Thank you all for your dedicated service to our community. Your presence and commitment make a real difference. As we continue to rely on this ministry, we strongly encourage those who are not yet trained to be ministers to take the next step and become trained. Serving at Mass is deeply meaningful, and expanding our team is essential to easing the burden currently carried by a small group of ministers.

MINISTRY CENSUS

As our parish family continues moving toward becoming one united parish, we are updating our records of all active ministries in the community. If you lead a ministry, please scan the QR code to complete the Ministry Registration Form. If you participate in a ministry, kindly remind your ministry leader to submit the form as well. Your response helps us maintain an accurate picture of the many ways our parish serves, grows, and thrives together.

Thank you to those who helped with the Spring yard clean-up! From clearing the leaves to tidying the garden beds, everything looks fresh and beautiful. Your time and effort is a gift to all of us who get to enjoy the grounds every time we come to SJV.
